

Regulation on the F.P. Haas Prize for foreign nationals studying on the Bachelor's and Specialist's Degree Programmes in

N.I. Pirogov Russian State Medical University, Ministry of Health of Russia

1. General provisions

1.1. These Regulations on the F.I. Haaz Award to foreign nationals studying on Bachelor's and Specialist's Degree Programmes at N.I. Pirogov Russian State Medical University (hereinafter - Regulations, name award, University) determine the procedure of appointment and payment of the name award to foreign nationals studying on Bachelor's and Specialist's Degree Programmes (hereinafter - students) of the University.

1.2 One nominal award covering the annual cost of the educational services shall be made on a competitive basis each year.

1.3. A commemorative prize may be awarded to students who have demonstrated the highest results in their studies combined with scientific, creative, sporting and organizational achievements, who study under contracts for paid educational services and are not entitled to study at the expense of the budget, regardless of whether they are eligible for other incentives.

2. Procedure for the nominal award

2.1 The commemorative prize shall be awarded to foreign nationals studying on Bachelor's and Specialist's degree programmes at the University on a full-time basis at places under contracts for the provision of paid educational services and who are not entitled to study at the expense of the budget.

2.2 A named bonus may be awarded to students from the 4th year.

2.3 The name prize shall be awarded annually for 1 (one) year from the beginning of the academic year by order of the University on the basis of a decision of the Rector's Office upon presentation by the expert committee of the international faculty.

2.4 The nominal prize shall be awarded annually for the period from 1 September to 31 July of the current academic year.

3. Criteria for the selection of candidates for the named prizes

3.1 Students who have successfully passed their attestation, starting with the attestation of the 6th semester, may participate in the competition.

3.2 The decision to nominate candidates for the name award shall be taken by the expert committee of the International Faculty on the basis of a self-representation of candidates attached in the form of a nomination application form in accordance with the Annex to these Regulations.

3.3 The criteria for the competitive selection of candidates for the nomination of the prize shall be

3.3.1 Achievement in learning - a grade point average of 5.0 for the whole period of study;

3.3.2 Participation of students in scientific activities: publication of scientific articles, recognition of students as winners or prize-winners in scientific work competitions, availability of patents, grants - for the entire period of study;

3.3.3 Students' participation in creative work: recognition of students as winners or prize-winners of creative competitions - for the entire period of study;

3.3.4 Students' sporting achievements: recognition of students as winners or prize-winners of sporting competitions and contests - for the entire period of study;

3.3.5 Participation of students in organizational work, volunteer work, work in the structural units of the University - for the entire period of study;

3.3.6. No disciplinary action - for the whole period of study.

3.4 All student achievements must have documentary evidence (original documents). Supporting documents must be submitted with the application.

3.5 Acceptance of documents for the nominee award shall take place from 1 July - 15 August in the premises of the Dean's Office of the International Faculty.

3.6 Receipt of a nominal award shall not be a barrier to other scholarships and other payments provided for by the local regulations of the University.

4. Sources of funding of the nominee award

4.1 The sources of funding for the nominal award shall be extra budgetary funds from income-generating activities of the University.

4.2 A named bonus shall be awarded to a student who meets all the criteria set out in these Regulations, based on a decision of the Rector of the University, in the form of a 100% discount from the tuition fee for the year.

4.3 The discount shall be formalized by drawing up an additional agreement to the agreement on the provision of paid educational services and cannot be replaced by a cash equivalent

5. Termination of the nominal award

5.1 The duration of the nominee award shall be one academic year.

5.2 The granting of a named award to students may be terminated prematurely by order of the University on the basis of a submission from the Dean of the International Faculty:

5.2.1 If students violate the University Charter and/or the University's internal regulations for students, other local regulations of the University.

5.2.2 Students - recipients of the personal bonus shall be entitled to postpone the implementation of the bonus upon their personal request, if they are on academic leave, maternity leave, parental leave until the child is three years old.

6. Procedure for amending and supplementing these Regulations

Amendments and additions to these Regulations shall be adopted and approved in the same manner as these Regulations are adopted and approved.